

ASHLYNS SCHOOL

Teacher of History from September 2021
Full Time (with ability to teach English)

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teacher of History at Ashlyns School.

The information included in this pack will give you an insight into our school - the high aspirations we have for our students and the excellent support and opportunities given to Ashlyns staff. View our Prospectus here.

Ashlyns is a popular and oversubscribed school. We became a full secondary school in September 2013 following the re-organisation of the education provision in Berkhamsted, and now have over 1,400 students. The school has undergone significant refurbishment in recent years, notably following our expansion to eight forms of entry in September 2017. This is an exciting time to join our school and make your impression as we continue to grow and build on our success.

The school was rated 'Good' by Ofsted in May 2018 and is focused on continuous improvement, with the aspiration to be rated 'Outstanding'. View our Ofsted report here.

Ashlyns is a thriving school with a rich heritage. Originally established for the most vulnerable in society, the school continues to emphasise the traditional values of respect, honesty and hard work. These values, combined with high expectations, innovation and creativity, mean that Ashlyns is a school which encourages and helps students to develop and make the most of their abilities and interests.

If you want to provide outstanding learning opportunities for students within a forward-thinking, hard-working school community, we would like to hear from you. We welcome visits from prospective candidates prior to application; please see contact details at the end of this pack.

Job Description

Post Title: Teacher of History
Salary: MPS/UPS
Responsible to: Head of Department

History at Ashlyns School: History is a very popular subject at Ashlyns. The Department aims that students become active citizens, fully aware of the circumstances that have led to their lives and position today. Students should therefore be able to investigate fully: The Norman invasion and its impact; The Reformation; the Industrial Revolution and Britain's unique role in this; the impact of the British Empire; the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade and Britain's role in this; Britain's role in conflict and international relations since 1900.

Students utilise historical enquiry as a toolkit to analyse and understand the world around them in history, both at an individual or local level as well as nationally and internationally. They have the opportunity to explore the role of local history and its impact on their heritage

Our programme includes: a trip to Berlin for Years 10-13; Year 12 Holocaust Educational Trust visit to Auschwitz; Holocaust survivor testimony for the whole school; Assemblies – Black History Month and commemoration of events such as WW1 / VE Day

The duties outlined in this job description reflect and develop those covered by the latest School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/school-teachers-pay-and-conditions>

Job descriptions are subject to review and amendment. This job description may be amended at any time following discussion with the Headteacher and is to be reviewed periodically.

Expected "standards" to be reached and maintained are clearly defined within the school's Performance Appraisal (PA) documentation and should be referred to regularly for further clarification and specific detail.

MAIN (CORE) DUTIES

TEACHING AND LEARNING

- Carry out teaching duties in accordance with the school's schemes of work and the defined National Curriculum. To plan and deliver lessons and other learning activities in accordance with the school's Teaching and Learning Policy
- Liaise with other colleagues to deliver units of work in a collaborative way and contribute to the production and preparation of schemes of work (this contribution reflecting the post holder's level of responsibility)
- Work closely with teaching and other support assistants in delivering "personalised learning" whenever reasonably possible

- Set targets for student attainment levels (using prior data provided)
- Set work for students absent from lessons in line with the school's behaviour and teaching policies
- Within the PM framework, work towards or maintain the teaching standards applicable (see documentation in PM material)

ASSESSMENT AND RECORDING

- Maintain a "teacher planner" as prescribed in the school's policy, including the recording of attainment and effort marks, homework set, student attendance and lesson plans
- Mark and return work (using the school's marking and assessment policy) on a regular basis and at least once every 2 teaching weeks. Marking should include feedback for improvement and progress for each student
- Provide assessment reports when periodically required within the school's assessment cycle and additional "round robin" reports when specifically requested
- To ensure that suitably differentiated material and learning pathways are provided to challenge all students, regardless of their ability
- Liaise with parents on students' progress using the school diary system, letters, telephone calls and consultation evenings where reasonable and appropriate
- Work within the code of practice relating to special educational needs

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

- Support the aims and ethos of the school as defined in the staff handbook and school prospectus
- Set a good example in terms of professional dress and appearance, punctuality and attendance
- Uphold the school's behaviour policy, uniform regulations and code of conduct in a consistent, firm and non-confrontational manner
- Maintain a purposeful and calm atmosphere in the classroom and other learning areas and consistently apply the school's prescribed sanctions and rewards procedures
- To carry out suitable evaluation and analysis of examination results and performance at the beginning of the academic year (see PM documentation) and provide a suitable summative report indicating achievements and corrective actions which might subsequently follow
- As a consequence of the PA cycle, take responsibility for personal development and progression making full use of the school's professional development opportunities and training (refer to "Investors in People" documentation for more detailed information)
- Attend team and staff meetings as appropriate, contributing actively whenever possible

ADDITIONAL DUTIES

- To play a full part in the life of the school community, to support its distinctive mission and ethos and to encourage and ensure staff and students to follow this example

This position will also involve taking on other appropriate roles and duties as and when directed by the Headteacher

Person Specification

The Governors are looking for an exceptional teacher to play their part in driving and shaping the future of Ashlyns School. Our person specification is underpinned by our educational philosophy. This centres around a shared view that a child's starting point should not define their destiny and an understanding of, and belief in, the difference that school can make.

The successful candidate will share a commitment to:

- our core values of respect, trust, honesty and hard work
- high standards of academic achievement for all students
- excellent pastoral care, support and guidance
- developing the experiential element of school life to ensure that students leave our school as well-rounded individuals ready to take their place in the world

Why Choose to Teach at Ashlyns School?

Ashlyns provides a well resourced, exciting environment for staff. We have well established, detailed schemes of work and a wide range of teaching resources for all courses. All teaching staff are issued with a Chromebook and we use G Suite for Education throughout the school. Our systems provide flexible working and a truly collaborative culture. As well as joining our experienced and close-knit team, there are other benefits that come with the role:

Health: Free use of on-site gym with weekly staff fitness sessions; Wellbeing support (free access to mental health support, physiotherapy etc.); Free annual flu jab; Dedicated and active Staff Wellbeing/Social Team (with leadership focus on teacher workload and a coaching programme), Excellent staff facilities (ample on-site parking, large staff room, departmental offices), Staff Occasional Day (the school usually schedules this annually)

Wealth: London fringe allowance payscale; Paid lunch duty available plus lunch allowance; Herts Reward Scheme (savings at supermarkets, on leisure activities etc.); Cycle to work scheme

Family: Children of Staff Admission Rule

Support: A talented team of support staff who provide expert, whole school support (including Administrators, Teaching Assistants, Premises Staff, Mentors and Technicians)

Sadiya Khatun, Teacher of English

I joined Ashlyns as an NQT and was welcomed into an experienced and supportive department. The mentoring and encouragement I've received in the early stages of my career have been invaluable and have shaped me as a teacher. Since then, I have become a Head of House, organised extra-curricular activities and delivered whole school Inset and training.

James Clark, Second in Maths

Since joining Ashlyns I have received mentoring and coaching to become a successful middle leader. I have also been able to develop my career by assisting in whole school data analysis. Ashlyns is a very cohesive and welcoming place to work - I thoroughly enjoy being part of the team.

Rebecca Kingston, Assistant Headteacher

I have been an AHT at Ashlyns for three years having been a Head of Faculty, and very much enjoy working as part of an extremely supportive and dynamic leadership team. The engagement and enthusiasm of our students and passion and commitment of our staff make it a school that I am immensely proud to be part of.

Our Georgian style, listed building is an impressive sight. Built in 1935 as a foundling hospital, it is steeped in history; its very fabric has an ethos of looking after children. Our school has been used as the backdrop in films and TV programmes – most recently in the BBC’s ‘Call the Midwife’ and Netflix’s ‘The Crown’.

Ashlyns School is located on the edge of the market town of Berkhamsted in south west Hertfordshire, recently named The Sunday Times’ best place to live in the south east of England. Berkhamsted is surrounded by Chiltern countryside, is within easy reach of London (30 minutes to Euston by rail) and has great transport links with M25, M1 and A41.

We have lovely staff accommodation for colleagues moving to the area, subject to availability, in our on-site lodges. Berkhamsted is easily commutable from many nearby towns including Aylesbury, Hemel Hempstead, Luton, St Albans and Watford.

Application Guidance

Candidates should be aware that there are 2 components to the online application via Teach in Herts:

1. Online application form (including personal statement); CVs will not form part of the application process and should not be submitted.
2. Covering Letter: please attached this as a separate document. It should not exceed 2 sides of A4 (font size no smaller than point 10) and should be distinct from the personal statement within the application form.

When nominating referees, please provide a telephone number and email address. One of these must be the Headteacher of your current school, if you are currently employed as a teacher. Please note that, if you are shortlisted, your references will be taken up before the interview day.

If you are appointed, you will be required to complete an online Disclosure and Barring check. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; shortlisted candidates will be asked to complete a Criminal Records Self-Declaration Form.

We would be delighted to show you around our school.

Please contact Clare Richardson, HR Officer, on 01442 863605 to arrange a visit.

Ashlyns School is committed to safeguarding children and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All successful candidates will be subject to an Enhanced Criminal Records Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service, along with other relevant employment checks, including overseas criminal background checks, where applicable. All new employees and volunteers will be required to undertake safeguarding training on induction which will be updated regularly in line with statutory guidance.

As an equal opportunities employer, Ashlyns School is committed to the equal treatment of all current and prospective employees and does not condone discrimination on the basis of age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race or ethnicity, religion or belief, gender identity, or marriage and civil partnership.

We aspire to have a diverse and inclusive workplace and strongly encourage suitably qualified applicants from a wide range of backgrounds to apply and join Ashlyns School. We operate an anonymised shortlisting process.
