Sadiya Khatun, Teacher of English

I joined Ashlyns as an NQT and was welcomed into an experienced and supportive department. The mentoring and encouragement I've received in the early stages of my career have been invaluable and have shaped me as a teacher. Since then, I have become a Head of House, organised extra-curricular activities and delivered whole school Inset and training.

James Clark, Second in Maths

Since joining Ashlyns I have received mentoring and coaching to become a successful middle leader. I have also been able to develop my career by assisting in whole school data analysis. Ashlyns is a very cohesive and welcoming place to work - I thoroughly enjoy being part of the team.

Rebecca Kingston, Assistant Headteacher

I have been an AHT at Ashlyns for two years having been a head of faculty, and very much enjoy working as part of an extremely supportive and dynamic leadership team. The engagement and enthusiasm of our students and passion and commitment of our staff make it a school that I am immensely proud to be part of.

Our Georgian style, listed building is an impressive sight. Built in 1935 as a foundling hospital, it is steeped in history; its very fabric has an ethos of looking after children. Our school has been used as the backdrop in films and TV programmes – most recently in the BBC's 'Call the Midwife' and Netflix's 'The Crown'.

Ashlyns School is located on the edge of the market town of Berkhamsted in south west Hertfordshire, recently named The Sunday Times' best place to live in the south east of England. Berkhamsted is surrounded by Chiltern countryside, is within easy reach of London (30 minutes to Euston by rail) and has great transport links with M25, M1 and A41.

We have lovely staff accommodation for colleagues moving to the area, subject to availability, in our on-site lodges. Berkhamsted is easily commutable from many nearby towns including Aylesbury, Hemel Hempstead, Luton, St Albans and Watford.
